You may very well have seen or heard news reports that gas boilers will be banned in the UK from 2025. And, understandably, you might be wondering what this might mean for you and your home. After all, gas boilers heat the vast majority of the UK's homes and so many of us are reliant on them.

The good news is that there's nothing to worry about if yours is one of the millions of British homes that already runs on a gas boiler. And here's why...
